FOUNDATIONS FIRM AS HOUSING BOARD PLANS FOR FUTURE

“If you have built castles in the air, your work need not be lost; there is where they should be. Now, put foundations under them.” -Thoreau

There is a wide variety in the way Greek organizations exist. On some campuses, fraternities and sororities are social organizations with no permanent residence or structure to call home. At others, sections of university dorms are partitioned for a particular “house,” while others have meeting halls but no residence.

At OU we have a campus with a long and strong fraternity and sorority presence, with most, if not all, chapters having their own residences. The fraternity house serves not only as a residence for its members while in school but also a focal point for all social and campus activities involvement.

Changing demographics, markets, and students’ preferences have created challenges for chapters in the maintenance of their structures. Today, larger memberships strain existing house occupancies. However, large capital infusions to add on to or build larger houses create financial risk as membership numbers will inevitably decrease at some time. Currently at OU this is offset by more housing options available to students compared to a generation ago. With some percentage of membership that will never live in the house, chapters are challenged to maintain the residential structure as a central theme to the membership.

Your housing board, Sigma Phi, recognizes these challenges and is dedicated to maintaining our Chapter House at a level where we can offer the actives a safe and healthy living environment, with occupancy levels that ensure a financially stable Chapter, and a historical structure that graces the entry to the University along Lindsay Street, as it has for 80 years. So as Gamma-Rho continues to build “castles in the air” and send outstanding young men to post-college life, we maintain a solid foundation on Lambda Chi Alpha’s principles housed at 904 College.

Chapter Keeps Winning Tradition Alive

CAMPUS-WIDE SUCCESS

The fall semester was extremely successful for Lambda Chi. Homecoming 2010 was a clean sweep for our Chapter. Teaming up with the women of Delta Delta Delta, we won first place overall, and our very own Michael Nash, GP 2253 won Homecoming king. Three of the last four OU Homecoming kings have been Lambda Chis (Eddie Coates, GP 2093 in 2007 and Ben Bigbie, GP 2148 in 2008). In addition, during Dad’s Day weekend, Lambda Chi partnered with the women of Kappa Kappa Gamma to win second place overall in University Sing. Gamma Rho Zeta senior Daniel Jones, GP 2300 was elected to the office of IFC president to serve his second term. Other notable leadership positions:

Robert Elliot, GP 2305 - IFC Chief Justice
Michael Nash, GP 2253 - CAC High School Leadership Conference Chairman and OU Cousins Student Director
Matt Nash, GP 2306 - CAC High School Leadership Conference Vice Chairman
Michael Williams, GP 2348 - CAC University Sing Vice Chairman

TOP IFC G.P.A.

Lambda Chi did exceptionally well in the IFC grade rankings, winning first overall with a 3.19 G.P.A. Members were also ranked first among all fraternities at OU with a membership average of 3.27. There were 15 members and 12 new members who received a 4.0 G.P.A. for the semester, which was a huge reason for winning grades.

COMMUNITY SERVICE CONTINUED

We continued our Lambda Theta pumpkin carve philanthropy with the women of Kappa Alpha Theta, benefiting the Big Brothers Big Sisters program. We also collected more than 5,000 pounds of canned food for the North American Canned Food Drive.

ON TRACK FOR INTRAMURAL CHAMPIONSHIP

The dominance of Lambda Chi continues in this year's intramurals. We are well on our way to our 19th championship in 24 years, having racked up 359 points at the end of the fall semester, more than 100 points ahead of the current second place. The bulk of these points came from winning first place in football, the largest sport of the fall.

Lambda Chi joined with the women of Kappa Alpha Theta for the third annual Lambda Theta pumpkin carve, benefitting Big Brothers Big Sisters of Cleveland County.

More than 100 Little Brothers and Little Sisters from the Norman area attended the Lambda Theta pumpkin carve. The event also featured carnival games for the children to enjoy.

Career in Sports Marketing Combines Business and Passion

Spotlight on Bryan Pettigrew, GP 1340

Pettigrew, GP 1340 as he entered the University of Oklahoma. “I knew I wanted to be a Lambda Chi because my friends told me it was the best fraternity on campus. Everyone directed me there and, after I visited, I didn’t attend a recruitment event at another chapter. Lambda Chi was the right fit for me.”

“The guys in the Fraternity taught me responsibility and good study habits. There were many guys to look up to that went on to become very successful. My job as house manager was fun because everyone participated and I got to see and interact with everyone. The negotiation and personal skills that I use today are very much like those I learned attending Chapter meetings, making tough decisions at times, and working with a team to accomplish our goals.”

Bryan took more than life skills away from his time in Gamma-Rho. He also left with deeply meaningful relationships. “The lifelong friends that I made at Lambda Chi are the people that I work with, have business partnerships with, and would trust with my life. Every time I see the guys I went to school with it’s like we’re still in college. They are like family. We pick up right where we left off.”

Bryan earned a degree in communications and, combined with his passion for professional sports, this turned into the perfect fit for a career in sports marketing. Beginning in horse racing, Bryan developed his skills and in 2004, started Affinity Sports and Event Marketing in Dallas-Fort Worth. His team handles marketing, advertising, and events for a number of organizations, including the Breeders’ Cup World Championships, John Deere, AT&T, and McDonald’s.

“My favorite moment working in this field was meeting the queen of England at a racing event. I have the opportunity to meet great athletes, team owners, and people involved in sports. My hobby is my work and I get to see sporting events all over the world with my family and friends. I am doing exactly what I love to do.”

At home, Bryan and his wife, Melinda, keep busy with their two children, Carter and Callie. Bryan can be reached at bryan@affinitysportsmarketing.com.

ALUMNI MAILBAG

*Below is a sampling of comments sent in from alumni after our last issue of the Gamma Rhoer.
Thanks to all for sharing your news, thoughts, and remembrances.*

Clifford Stone, GP 292 moved to Leawood, Kan., from Denver, Co.

Pepper Harraway, GP 368 writes that he went through recruitment three times. In the summer of 1949 when his brother, Jack, GP 243, was rush chairman, he decided at the last minute to go to a smaller college. In the summer of 1950 the Korean War broke out and he was inducted on September 1. In the summer of 1952, after returning from Korea, Pepper pledged and was president of his pledge class. Better late than never, Pepper!

Ron Elkins, GP 393 shares that he is very interested in current recruitment activities as he has a grandson that will be at OU next fall. He thinks AXA would be a great place for him.

Patrick Pitchford, GP 565 recalls that Stan Bozarth, GP 539, rush chairman in 1960, so impressed his mother that she insisted AXA was for him. He also remembers the great Sooner Scandals acts by Curt Schwartz, GP 455 and Larry Bledsoe, GP 465.

Bill Pitts, GP 603 is looking forward to the 1961-62 pledge class reunion in Norman this May. He already has his hotel reservations.

Gary Farabough, GP 762 was appointed by Governor Brad Henry as a regent for the Ardmore Higher Education Center.

David White, GP 941 writes that he was summer rush chairman two years in a row when AXA went from 10th of 23 fraternities in size at OU to the second largest at his graduation.

Larry Abel, GP 984 went through spring rush, much less formal and frantic than fall rush. President Jim Cunningham, GP 949 and Rush Chairman David Benninger, GP 937 came over to his dorm room in Walker tower to offer him a bid, and “interrupted” him as he was with his Gamma Phi Beta girlfriend at the time. Larry also writes of the great year his design firm had; they appeared on Oprah and Open House L.A. and produced the première party for Glee in September.

Steve Farrar, GP 1255 writes that he originally pledged Delta Tau Delta in 1985 due to his being a legacy. After realizing his mistake and depledging, he contacted Dave Mustain, GP 1130, the AXA rush chairman with whom he attended an intramural volleyball game between AXA and ΔΤΔ. We won and he associated; a decision he has never regretted.
